Amendment to Casual Leave Rules.

PREAMBLE :

According to Rule 5 of the Casual Leave Rules contained in Annexure 'B' to the Karnataka Civil Services Rules, Special Casual leave is admissible to a Government servant whose pay does not exceed Rs 500 per month, when he is bitten by a rabid animal. This pay limit is discriminatory as every Government servant whether his pay is Rs. 500 or more or less, requires the same treatment for the same period which has to be treated as Special Casual leave. In the rules of the neighbouring States no such pay limit has been prescribed for the grant of Special Casual leave for this purpose. It is therefore, considered necessary to remove the pay limit existing in Rule 5 of the Casual leave Rules in Annexure 'B' to K C. S. Rs.

ORDER No.FD 213 SRS 72, BNGALORE, DATED 10TH MAY 1974.

The matter has been examined. Government are pleased to delete the words and figures viz., "and whose pay does not exceed Rs. 500 a month" appearing in the second line of Rule 5 of the Casual leave Rules contained in Annexure 'B' to the Karnataka Civil Services Rules.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,

M. BASALINGAPPA,

Under Secretary to Government Finance Department (Services).
